

This Is Where The Battle Against Breast Cancer Begins.

The Pink Power Network provides a comprehensive approach for women with breast health needs, from comprehensive diagnostic services, to breast pain or malignancy, specialty consultations, and multidisciplinary treatment plans.

The healthcare professionals at Northwest Medical Center, Plantation General Hospital, University Hospital and Medical Center, and Westside Regional Medical Center work collectively to offer preventative measures for their patients and have earned an outstanding reputation for its dedication in helping patients fight breast cancer on all fronts. Various treatments offered within the network are but not limited to:

- Breast Ultrasounds
- Breast MRI
- Biopsies
- Stereotactic Biopsies
- Breast Surgery
- Breast Reconstruction

Early detection is key! Let us help guide you through the most important decision you can make all year.
